AN ACT to amend chapter 166 of the general laws of 1869, entitled "an act to repeal chapter 132 of the general laws of 1866, entitled an act to vest the title of unredeemed lands in counties."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of chapter 166 of the general laws of 1869, is hereby amended by striking out the words "issuing of such deed, where they occur in the eighth line of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the words, "date of the sale on which such deed shall issue;" also by striking out the words "clerk of the board of supervisors," where they occur in the tenth line of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "county clerk," so that said section will read as follows, when amended: Section 1. Real property upon which the county holds any certificate of tax sale, shall continue liable to taxation and to sale for unpaid taxes, and the county shall be the exclusive purchaser at the sale; but when a tax deed shall be issued to the county, and it shall hold tax certificates of sale unredeemed on the same property for two successive years subsequent to the date of the sale on which such deed shall issue, including certificates of sale made prior to the passage of this act, such property shall thereafter be exempt from taxation until the same is sold by the county. The county clerk shall annually, before the first day of June, furnish to the assessors of each town a list of the lands in such town, exempt under this section; provided, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to the county of Shawano.

Concerning real estate in which any county holds unpaid tax certificates.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 3, 1874.

AN ACT to amend section thirty-six of chapter thirty-four of the revised statutes, relating to the support of the poor by counties.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

County super n-
tendent of poor to give bonds.

SECTION 1. Section thirty-six of chapter thirty-four of the revised statutes, relating to the support of the poor by counties, is hereby amended so that the same, when so amended, will read as follows: Every county superintendent of the poor, who shall hereafter be elected under and in pursuance of this chapter, shall, within ten days after notice of his election and before entering upon the duties of his office, execute to the county board of supervisors of his county, his bond in such penal sum as shall be required by said board of supervisors by resolution, with two or more sufficient sureties to be approved by said board of supervisors, or by the chairman thereof when said board is not in session, which bond, with the approval aforesaid indorsed thereon by the county clerk, shall be filed in his office. Such bond shall be conditioned in substance that he will faithfully and properly perform all the duties of the office of county superintendent of the poor, and will pay over and disburse, according to law, all moneys that shall come into his hands as such superintendent, and that he will render a just and true account thereof whenever required by the county board of supervisors, or by any provisions of law, and will deliver over to his successor, or to any other person or persons authorized by law to receive the same, all moneys, books, papers, and other things appertaining or belonging to his said office.

Conditions of bonds.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 3, 1874.
